Agreement between the AMERICAN PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY and the undersigned recipient of a grant from the Penrose Fund:

It is understood and agreed that the relation of the Grantee to the American Philosophical Society is that of an individual contractor and is not and at no time shall be that of an employee.

The Grantee agrees to submit to the Society when the project for which the grant is made is completed, a report of the results accomplished, in a form intelligible to the general reader, for publication in the Society's YEAR BOOK. If the project is not completed within a year the Society should be so informed with an indication of when it is likely to be completed.

The Grantee agrees to submit an account of his expenditures from the grant.

The Grantee agrees that apparatus or materials of lasting value purchased by a grant from this Society shall not be disposed of, after completion of the investigation, except after consultation with the Society and in accord with its wishes.

The Grantee agrees that in the event of his death or disability the Society shall have the right to take over any results of his unfinished work including manuscripts, unless other provision satisfactory to the Society is made.

The Grantee agrees that any publication of the results of the work supported in whole or in part by a grant from the Society shall state in the publication that the work was supported by a grant from that particular fund of the American Philosophical Society from which the grant was made.

In the event that the recipient of a grant shall fail to commence in a reasonable time and thereafter to continue work on the project for which the grant was made, the Society shall be under no obligation to make any payment, or, if any has been made, to make any further payments.
